

People On The Move

Ted Watts has been promoted to vice president of operations at St. Barnabas Senior Living Services in Chattanooga, Tenn. Watts has eight years of health care management experience. He will oversee the daily operations of St. Barnabas' nursing home and assisted living retirement apartment divisions.

Brigetta Nethery, RN, has been named administrator of St. Barnabas' nursing division. She will be responsible for the daily functions of the nursing home. Nethery has 20 years of experience in health care. St. Barnabas also has appointed Eric Fitch administrator/manager of the assisted living and retirement apartments division. Fitch will primarily be responsible for the various functions of the apartment community. He has four years of health care management experience.

Sterling Glen of Forest Hills, an assisted senior living residence in Queens, N.Y., has named Deborah Goldin community relations director. She will be responsible for community relations and sales and marketing, as well as event planning.

GOLDIN

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations has reappointed Richard Tompkins as chairman of the board of directors for Joint Commission Resources. Tompkins will be responsible for expanding domestic and international markets.

Bridget Gallagher has been promoted from vice president to senior vice president of the community services division of the Jewish Home and Hospital Lifecare System, New York. She will be accountable for planning, directing, and managing all of the division's community-based programs and services, including long term home health care, adult day care, home assistance personnel, natural occurring retirement communities, and the Woodlands. Jewish Homes and Hospital also has named Marc Damsky medical administrator. He will be collaborating with administrators and medical directors at the system's three divisions. Also, Damsky will work with physician groups and hospitals to develop strategic relationships, provide guidance in billing for medical services, and over-

GALLAGHER

Marianne Segal has been named executive director of Sterling Glen of Forest Hills, N.Y. Prior to joining Sterling Glen, she served as associate administrator of the Metropolitan Jewish Geriatric Nursing Home in Brooklyn, N.Y. Her new responsibilities will include supervising and coordinating all operations at the senior assisted living residence.

—Yvette Cowan

SEGAL

see the process for credentialing medical staff.

St. Andrews Village, Camp Hill, Pa., has named Kim Freehling director of independent living resident services, a newly created position. Freehling has most recently served as director of marketing for the health center, assisted living, and independent living levels of care. In her new role she will manage the direction, coordination, and supervision of all independent living services on the campus.

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.