

People On The Move

Byers

ACTS Retirement-Life Communities, West Point, Pa., has elected Robert Byers to its board of directors. Byers is chairman of Byers' Choice, a company he founded in 1981. He is also president of The Byers Foundation, which funds charitable activities. ACTS' 12-member board of directors strives to ensure the social, personal, health, and spiritual needs of seniors.

Angelia Ehlers has joined Senior Resource Group, San Diego, Calif., as director of sales and marketing. Ehlers will oversee occupancy of 1,100 units at 10 seniors living communities in California, Arizona, and Nebraska and preleasing of three communities with 572 units under construction in California and Oregon. Ehlers has 10 years of experience in seniors lifestyle marketing. Most recently, she was marketing director of a Senior Resource Group facility in Oregon where she achieved 100 percent occupancy. She also served as marketing director of assisted living communities for Emeritus.

Ehlers

Eskaton, a nonprofit senior health care company in Grass Valley, Calif., has named Vanessa Laidley-Tennies administrator of Eskaton Village Grass Valley retirement community. Laidley-Tennies has more than 15 years of experience in seniors health care and is a member of the Nevada County Elder Care Coalition, the Long-Term Adult Care Planning Council, and Kiwanis.

Tarutis

John Tarutis has been named executive director of Laurel Gardens of Orange in Orange, Conn. A local leader in seniors living and health care, Tarutis most recently served as administrator of an orthopedic rehabilitation and long term care facility.

Bruce Rosenblatt has been named regional marketing manager of Greystone Communities in Tampa, Fla. Rosenblatt will be responsible for all sales and marketing operations at University Village in Tampa and Freedom Village in Bradenton. Most recently, he was senior sales director for a community owned and managed by Classic Residences by Hyatt.

Village Manor, Lincoln, Neb., has appointed Rosalyn Burke administrator. Before joining Village Manor, Burke served as chief operations officer and interim administrator of Shodair Children's Hospital and administrator of Cooney Convalescent Home.

Beth Tafuri has been elected president of Friends of Sarah Neuman, Mamaroneck, N.Y. Tafuri has been on the board of directors of Friends since 1998, previously serving as co-president. Friends of Sarah Neuman is a 60-member auxiliary dedicated to enriching the lives of residents at the 300-bed nursing facility and rehabilitation center.

Monica Pope has been named director of the nonprofit Eskaton Foundation in Sacramento, Calif. She will oversee the foundation's board of directors' committees for fund-raising, public relations, and volunteers. The Eskaton Foundation provides support for the nonprofit health care company.

Day

Douglas Day has been promoted to vice president of St. Barnabas Health System, Gibsonsia, Pa. Day previously served as assistant vice president for the health system and as administrative director of the medical center. He will continue to manage a home care agency, a full-scale dental medicine department, a multispecialty general medicine operation, and a rehabilitation therapy program.

NeighborCare, Baltimore, Md., has announced the appointment of William Donatelli as director of operations for Braintree Pharmacy in Braintree, Mass. Braintree Pharmacy is a long term care pharmacy serving the Boston, South Shore, and Cape Cod markets. Prior to his appointment, Donatelli served as general manager for PharMerica.

Jill Grinnell has joined Trace Marketing, Sarasota, Fla., as director of Trace Executive Search and seniors consultant. She will be responsible for business development and management of recruitment services for executive positions in the seniors housing and services field for both local and national accounts. Grinnell has more than 10 years of experience in seniors housing.

—DeShaun Proctor

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: E. Jean Battle-Lee, Provider, 1201 L St., NW, Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.