

People On The Move

Michael Rosenblut has been named president and chief executive officer (CEO) of Parker Jewish Institute, New Hyde Park, N.Y. Rosenblut has served as executive vice president and chief operating officer and then as acting CEO since January 2003. Rosenblut will oversee Parker's 527-bed facility, which offers subacute and long term care as well as community programs, including adult day health care, an Alzheimer's respite center, home health care, physician services, physical and occupational therapy, and hospice.

Carla Herman has joined the staff of The Jewish Home and Hospital Lifecare System in Mamaroneck, N.Y., as senior vice president for administration and strategic business development. Herman has a strong background in health care, management consulting services for medical staff payment arrangements, and pro bono services to nonprofit organizations. The Jewish Home has also named Donna Prywes assistant director at the adult day health care program at Sarah Neuman Center for Healthcare and Rehabilitation. Prywes has been employed as a social worker at the day care program since 2002.

PRYWES

Ellen Foley has been named community relations director of Sterling Glen of Darien, formerly Stony Brook Court, in Sterling Glen, N.Y. Foley will be responsible for all marketing and community outreach efforts on behalf of the supportive seniors living residence. Prior to joining Sterling Glen, Foley served as a marketing coordinator of BayWoods of Annapolis, in Maryland.

FOLEY

— Yvette Cowan

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.