

People On The Move

Franklin, Tenn.-based Advocat has appointed Robert Hensley as a new director to the Advocat board. He is the principal owner of private publishing and real estate development companies in Destin, Fla. He is also a director of the Nashville Capital Network, an entrepreneurial and seed capital organization in Nashville.

Scott Crespy has been appointed quality improvement officer for the Madlyn and Leonard Abramson Center for Jewish Life in North Wales, Pa. Crespy will oversee the center's quality improvement and risk management efforts.

The Erickson School of Aging Studies at the University of Maryland has named the members of its newly created Advisory Council. The council members, who will support the school in identifying, developing, and providing resources for the advancement of education and applied research, include Jo Anne Barnhart, commissioner, Social Security Administration; Dan Baty, chief executive officer (CEO), Emeritus Assisted Living; William Colson, CEO, Holiday Retirement

Corp.; John Erickson, chairman and CEO, Erickson Retirement Communities; John Hurson, president, National Conference of State Legislatures and delegate, Maryland Legislature; Thomas Hutchinson III, CEO, CNL Retirement Properties; Paul Klaassen, founder, chairman, and CEO, Sunrise Senior Living; and Robert Kramer, president, National Investment Center for the Seniors Housing & Care Industries.

Classic Residence by Hyatt, Chicago, has appointed Chet Phillips vice president of information technology and Greg Bruns as assistant vice president of facilities management.

CRESPY

— Yvette Cowan

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.