

People On The Move

Ron Dyson, president and chief executive officer of The Philadelphia Protestant Home, has been selected to receive the 2002 Meritorious Service Award from the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging. The prestigious award recognizes outstanding achievements that have implications for national importance. Nominees must demonstrate commitment to the nonprofit philosophy and provide recognizable leadership in the field of senior services. Dyson was recognized for outstanding leadership in the area of quality care for seniors during his career and specifically for his vision and dedication at The Philadelphia Protestant Home.

DYSON

The Hebrew Rehabilitation Center for the Aged in Boston has appointed Denise McQuaide executive vice president. Before joining the center, she was responsible for operations of more than 30 long term care and assisted living facilities and 14 hospital-based subacute units as senior vice president of operations for Genesis Health Ventures.

Company President and Chief Operating Officer Paul Diaz will assume responsibility for operations of Kindred Health Care's health services division on an interim basis, replacing Donald Finney, who resigned to pursue other interests.

Oxford Services, Vancouver, Wash., developer and operator of assisted living and dementia care communities, has named Alexander Ben-Israel regional director. A 15-year seniors care veteran, Ben-Israel has been a nurse, program director, licensed nursing home administrator, and executive director.

Kathleen Martin has been appointed administrator of Greenbrook Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Greenbrook, N.J. Martin, who will be responsible for the overall management of the facility, will oversee its 235 employees and ensure that the facility meets state and federal guidelines. Martin has worked in both acute care and long term care facilities. She has worked in nurse management, planning, operations, and fiscal capacities.

Margaret Rivers has been appointed administrator of the Manhattan division of The Jewish Home and Hospital Lifecare System. Rivers is responsible for the overall operation of the 514-bed academic nursing facility and rehabilitation center, which includes 377 long term care beds, a 75-bed subacute unit, and the combined 62-bed special care units for those with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia. She also assumes supervision of the Lester Eisner Jr. Center for Geriatric Education, the Alan C. Greenberg Center on Ethics in Geriatrics and Long Term Care, and the Center on Pharmacology/Pharmacy for the Elderly.

KRIEN

Keith Krein, a former president of the American Medical Directors Association, has been named corporate medical director for Life Care Centers of America, Cleveland, Tenn. Krein will oversee the direction of medical services to Life Care's facilities and other professional medical services. Krein has worked as a medical management consultant for Mariner Post-Acute Network.

—DeShaun Proctor

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: E. Jean Battle-Lee, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.