

People On The Move

MALLETA

Assisted Living Hero of the Year Award. Perotto, a manager, has worked for the facility since 1983.

— Yvette Cowan

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.

Katrina Beasley has been named assistant general manager of Forest Trace, a 78-acre retirement community in Lauderhill, Fla. A 12-year employee of the community, she is now responsible for resident relations and budgeting control and will assist in the overall staffing and operations of the community.

Mather LifeWays, Evanston Ill., has appointed Joanne Malleta director of memory support. Malleta will be working with the dementia clinical supervisor to maintain a high quality of life for residents. Also, she will oversee activities, social work, guest relations, and dementia training for Mather Pavilion staff. Malleta has 12 years of older adult health care experience.

Arizona Gov. Janet Napolitano (D) has recently appointed Ann Breen, administrator of Encore Senior Village, Paradise Valley, Ariz., to the board of directors of the Nursing Care Institution Administrators & Assisted Living Facility Managers, an agency that licenses administrators of long term care facilities.

The Michigan Center for

Assisted Living committees have chosen recipients for their 2005 Excellence in Assisted Living Awards: Claris Riley, Summit Park Assisted Living, Jackson, Mich., for the Alice B. Wallace Excellence in Assisted Living Care Giver Award, and Benjamin Mowat, Colonial Villa of Midland, Midland, Mich., for the Excellence in Assisted Living Volunteer of the Year Award.

The Idaho Health Care Association has presented Phyllis Perotto of Vista Assisted Living Community, Rupert, Idaho, with its 2005