

People On The Move

Sterling Glen of Rye Brook, N.Y., has appointed

Christine Sulborski community relations director. Sulborski will be responsible for building relationships with community leaders and organizations in and around The Sterling Glen area. She previously worked as a marketing representative in the seniors housing industry in Stamford, Conn.

Kelly Parker has joined Whitney Place Assisted Living Residence in Natick, Mass., as a social worker. Parker previously worked at Bay Path Elder Services as a home care case manager, crisis worker, and caregiver advisor.

Janis Knorr has been named executive director of Sterling Glen of Rye Brook, N.Y. Knorr, who has worked more than 20 years in health care program administration, clinical, and community outreach, served as director of diabetes care at the Jewish Guild for the Blind in New York City and St. John's Riverside Hospital in Yonkers, N.Y. Knorr has held numerous positions with Byram Healthcare, based in Milford, Conn.

Signature Senior Living in Irving, Texas, has named

Andy Bynum executive director of its new community, Hawkins Creek, in Longview, Texas. The property is undergoing construction and will open in early 2007.

The Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities (KAHCF) has named Ruby Jo Cummins Lubarsky president. She has worked both in state government and on behalf of providers. Her long term care career began in 1975 with the state survey agency. Lubarsky was a team leader, complaint coordinator, and manager supervising the state's licensing and certification program in a 37-county area. She joined KAHCF in 1992, serving both as director of regulatory affairs and vice president.

Penacook Place, Haverhill, Mass., has named its second-quarter 2006 Employees of the Month: Certified Nurse Assistant Griselda Padilla of Danville, N.H.; Certified Nurse Assistant Patience Mujuru of Haverhill; and Housekeeper Ed Brown of Haverhill. Padilla was nominated by a resident for the exceptional care she gives. Mujuru was nominated for being very caring, reliable, and hard-working. Brown was nominated for his willingness to help co-workers and residents alike.

Armida Dixon, director of nursing at Heritage Health Care Center, Globe, Ariz., has received the Nursing Professional of the Year

SULBORSKI

Award at this year's Arizona Health Care Association convention in Scottsdale. Dixon was honored for her outstanding commitment to residents and associates as well as the many programs she has implemented.

The Washington Health Care Association has named Gary Weeks executive director. Most recently, he served as director of the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries. Before that, he spent six years as the director of the Oregon Department of Human Services, the state agency responsible for administering programs in health and human services.

Reginald Carter has been named president and chief executive officer of the Health Care Association of Michigan (HCAM). Previously, Carter was executive vice president. Carter is also responsible for overseeing the HCAM Service Corp. and the Michigan Center for Assisted Living.

—Yvette Cowan

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note: Please label photos.