

People On The Move

KESSLER

ing Sterling Glen, Kessler served as executive assistant to the president of Akadine Press in Pleasantville, N.Y.

— Yvette Cowan

If you have a People On The Move item, please send it to: Yvette Cowan, Provider, 1201 L St., N.W., Washington, DC 20005-4014. Note Please label photos.

Barbara Hill has joined Woodhaven Health Services, Baltimore, as chair and chief executive officer. Hill has 25 years of health care experience. She will be responsible for developing the vision and implementing the growth strategies that will allow the company to expand its services nationwide.

Denise Brisbin, RN, is the new resident services director at Orchard Park Assisted Living in Bellingham, Wash., where she will be responsible for nursing services. Brisbin has more than 20 years of experience in long term care, including 14 as a registered nurse.

Stefanie Mair has been hired as the administrator of Renaissance Gardens at Cedar Crest in Pompton Plains, N.J., where she will be in charge of the facility's grand opening in February and daily operations of assisted living, skilled nursing, and rehabilitation services. She is the former executive director of CareOne in Livingston, N.J. Also at Cedar Crest, Brian Alexopolous has been promoted to manager of rehabilitation services. Prior to joining Cedar Crest, he worked as a physical therapist at several retirement communities. In this new position, Alexopolous will be responsible for managing physical, occupational, and speech therapy for residents, as well as program development for residents of Renaissance Gardens.

Nancy Kessler has been named activities director of Sterling Glen, Rye Brook, N.Y. She will coordinate and supervise the community's cultural, educational, and recreational offerings, as well as multigenerational programming. Prior to join-